Stagecoach is real country music, specialising in playing “hard core” traditional country music from Australia and America. The band consists of family members Terry Fullwood and his son’s Neil and Paul along with Anita Webb and Gary Swain.

Their latest CD ( Aussie on my mind ) will be released at the Rocky Country Music Club on 24th April, 2010. It is available direct from the band (Either at a show, or we could mail one out). “This CD has songs that I was listening to when I was learning to play the Guitar,” Terry mentions. He then goes on to say, “We have done a CD with Aussie songs for our tour of the USA.”

These guys are not like the average country music group in Perth, they have a standard band line-up which includes a Pedal Steel Guitar and a Fiddle. Stagecoach have based their sound on the older style of country like Hank Williams. They say that there is no need for drums when you have a strong rhythm section, just listen to the CD or come to one of there live shows. Terry states, “We don’t play “Rock ‘n’ Roll, it just doesn’t fit with what we do.”

What you hear on this CD is what Stagecoach sounds like, live. So come along and see what Stagecoach have to offer.
